

Snow Flakes

Snow flakes are the most beautiful thing.
They are as white as a diamond ring.
They fall from the sky oh so softly.
And when you hold them in your hand,
they feel so cold but friendly.
Snow flakes are a beautiful thing.
They are as white as a diamond ring.

Your friends in the Colonial School District wish you a peaceful and joyous Holiday Season
and a prosperous New Year

Vincent F. Cotter, Ed.D.
Superintendent

Happy Holidays

Cover Art by Drew McKeown

Drew, a senior at Plymouth Whittemarsh High School, is the son of Theresa and Mark McKeown of Plymouth Meeting. He is a member of the National Art Honor Society and the Gay-Straight Alliance. Drew's favorite subject is AP Photography. He likes to draw and listen to music. Drew plans to attend Jean Madeline-Aveda Institute following graduation.

Inside Art by Emma Schwenderman

Emma, a third grader at Ridge Park Elementary School, is the daughter of Lisa and Matt Schwenderman of Plymouth Meeting. Emma's favorite subject is math and she enjoys reading and playing tennis. Emma wants to be an artist or a teacher when she grows up.

Poetry by Demi Ring

Demi, a third grader at Ridge Park Elementary School, is the daughter of Melissa and Daniel Ring of Lafayette Hill. Demi's favorite subject is science and she enjoys singing and dancing. Demi wants to be a veterinarian because she loves animals.